

Player's Code of Behaviour

- Play by the rules.
- Never argue with an official. If you disagree, have your captain, coach or manager approach the official after the competition.
- Control your temper. Verbal abuse of officials and sledging other players, deliberately distracting or provoking an opponent are not acceptable or permitted behaviours.
- Work equally hard for yourself and/or your team. Your team's performance will benefit so will you.
- Be a good sport. Applaud all good plays whether they are made by your team or the opposition.
- Treat all participants in your sport as you like to be treated. Do not bully or take unfair advantage of another competitor.
- Cooperate with your coach, teammates and opponents. Without them there would be no Dirty Reds.
- Participate for your own enjoyment and benefit, not just to please parents and coaches.
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants regardless of their gender, ability, cultural background or religion.
- Never place a bet or wager on a game in which a Drummoyne team or player is involved.

Spectator's Code of Behaviour

- Remember that people participate in sport for their enjoyment and benefit, not yours.
- Applaud good performance and efforts from all individuals and teams.
- Congratulate all participants on their performance regardless of the game's outcome.
- Respect the decisions of officials and teach young people to do the same.
- Never ridicule or scold a player for making a mistake. Positive comments are motivational.
- Condemn the use of violence in any form, whether it is by spectators, coaches, officials or players.
- Show respect for your team's opponents. Without them there would be no game.
- Encourage players to follow the rules and the officials' decisions.
- Do not use foul language, sledge or harass players, coaches or officials.
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every person regardless of their gender, ability, cultural background or religion

Parent/Guardian's Code of Behaviour

As a parent/guardian of a player/participant in any activity held by or under the auspices of Drummoyne Junior Rugby, you must meet the following requirements in regard to your conduct during any such activity or event:

- Remember that your child participates in sport for their own enjoyment, not yours.

- Focus on your child's efforts and performance rather than winning or losing.

- Respect officials' decisions and teach children to do likewise. Never approach an official during or after a game to question or criticise their performance

- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every person regardless of their gender, ability, cultural background or religion.
- Never place a bet or wager on a game in which the parent or guardian's child is involved.
